To
The Chief Electoral Officer
Uttar Pradesh,
Lucknow.

Subject: General Election to Legislative Assembly of UP- preparation and supply of copy of electoral roll to candidates of political parties- regarding.

Sir

According to the existing instruction of the Commission issued vide letter No.22/2/2008-PLN-II dated 08.08.2008 addressed to all the Chief Electoral Officers, in an election year suo motu deletions are not permitted after final publication of electoral roll, except in confirmed cases of death, that too with documentary evidence. In partial modification of those instructions it is hereby directed that after final publication of electoral roll on 02.01.2012, no deletions shall be done for any reasons whatsoever till the election process in the State of Uttar Pradesh is over.

Any applications received in Form 7 and all reported cases of deaths and duplicates in electoral rolls shall be kept in the Absentee Voters List for proper verification of identity at the polling station if any such elector turns up for voting. This should be brought to the notices of all concerned for immediate compliance.

Yours faithfully

(R.K.Srivastava)
