Dated: 15th June, 2012

To

The Returning Officer for Presidential Election and
Secretary General, Rajya Sabha
Room No. 29, Parliament House,
New Delhi-110001.

Sub: Election to the office of the President, 2012-Procedure for deposits and for Refund of deposits.

Sir,

I am directed to state that the deposits made in cash by intending candidates for the ensuing election to the Office of the President of India, with the Returning Officer may be credited to the Account Head “8443-Civil Deposit-121 Elections Deposit. Deposits made by the candidates for Presidential/Vice-Presidential Election” and the money received be deposited in the usual manner in the accredited Bank of the Election Commission of India, namely “Punjab National Bank”, Extension Counter, Nirvachan Sadan, New Delhi. The amount deposited in the Bank is adjustable in the book of Pay & Accounts Officer, Election Commission of India, New Delhi.

2. The refund of deposits, in admissible cases, will be made by the Pay & Accounts Officer, Election Commission of India on presentation of a bill in this behalf by Drawing and Disbursing Officer of the Election Commission in accordance with the instructions contained in the Ministry of Finance (Department of Expenditure), Special Cell O.M. No. F.2/27/76-Special Cell (Pt.II), dated 15.12.1976. In order to enable the Drawing and Disbursing Officer, Election Commission of India to keep proper accounts of the deposits made by the candidates and to record necessary certificates on the bill for making refunds in admissible cases. Returning Officer/Assistant Returning Officer will furnish to the Commission the details of the amount deposited and copies of the orders passed by him authorizing the refund of deposits to the claimant candidates. I am also to forward herewith a copy each of the model Forms of application for refund of deposits to be used in the different types of cases.

Yours faithfully,
