Election Commission presents the first copy of its publication 'INDIA VOTES' to Honourable President of India Shri Pranab Mukherjee

Chief Election Commissioner Shri H.S. Brahma and Election Commissioner Dr. Nasim Zaidi along with the senior officials from the Commission today presented the first copy of Commission's prestigious publication 'INDIA VOTES' to Honourable President of India Shri Pranab Mukherjee. On the occasion, the President appreciated the efforts made by Election Commission of India to bring out the book on historic General Elections to Lok Sabha 2014.

The President congratulated the Election Commission of India for launching a concise yet in inclusive manner the successful story of the Indian elections in this document.

The book 'INDIA VOTES' attempts to encapsulate the most critical and outstanding features of the Indian elections for a concise yet comprehensive, fact-filled and inside-eye view of the Indian elections, with special emphasis on the 2014 Lok Sabha Election, which became famous as the largest democratic exercise on earth so far.

The book traces the details of the process of the elections right from the training of the electoral teams at ECI Headquarter to the grassroots levels, through the process of the precise and thorough planning for the process.
