Quraishi, Former Chief Election Commissioner and Sh. Sudeep Jain, DG during the Regional Conference on the Use of Money in Politics and its Effects on People's Representation in New Delhi.*

The Secretary General of International IDEA Mr. Yves Leterme, former Prime Minister of Belgium, opened the doors for discussion in his welcome speech by laying serious concerns; he quoted "The question of money's negative influence over politics is as pressing as ever. Why? Because it threatens the very foundations of democracies. Money seeps into the political process on many levels, tainting everything from party financing to campaign donations and candidate expenses. Problems include, amongst others, incumbents abusing state funds; criminal money influencing decision-makers; and small groups of
